Linc has two very important things on his mindâ€”professional football and his motorcycle club.

What he does not have on his mind is the woman that drives him crazy and makes him want to do stupid things, like throw caution to the wind.

Nope, not Linc.

At least, thatâ€™s the lie he tells everyone.

In reality, every time Conleighâ€™s name is mentioned, he squirms.

Sheâ€™s everything that he wants, wrapped up in a cute little package that is stamped â€”hands freakinâ€™ off.â€™

Sheâ€™s four years younger than him, in school to be a doctor, and thinks football is stupid.

Even more, Linc and Conleigh get along like oil and water.

Thereâ€™s not a single second that theyâ€™re in each otherâ€™s presence that theyâ€™re not at each otherâ€™s throats.

But all it takes is hearing that sheâ€™s in trouble for Linc to drop every single thingâ€”football and MC duties alikeâ€”and head to her side.

A side that heâ€™ll remain at until they either kill each other, or finally give into the heat between them.

Either way you look at it, heâ€™s well and truly screwed.
